

SCHOOL OF ELECTRONICS AND COMMUNICATION ENGINEERING

Report On First Year Orientation Program

Date: 11/8/2016

Venue: Kuvempu Auditorium

Time: 2.30 pm to 4.30 pm.

Director School of Electronics and Communication Engineering congratulated students for joining REVA family by selecting REVA University School of ECE. He introduced first year coordinator Prof. Savitha P. R.

Director ECE presented the details regarding the department profile, facilities available at the department, Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) guidelines with curriculum and examination pattern. He highlighted additional facilities available in the School of ECE such as skill development center, Robotics and Automation Lab – e Yantra, Incubation center, IEEE student Branch and so on. He stressed that attendance is strictly monitored and if a student is absent for single class intimation will be sent to parents. Director urged the students to use the facilities that is available even after college hours.

The coordinators of skill development center, Robotics and Automation Lab – e Yantra, Incubation center briefed about the facilities and activities planned for the overall development of students.

Few snapshots of the program is given below.

