WHEREAS, the Consultant offers consulting services in the field of Software Product Development related consulting services,

WHEREAS, the Client desires to retain the services of the Consultant to render consulting services with regard to the scope described below.

1. Scope of Work

The consultant shall provide and deliver to the company custom software and consulting services in developing a video surveillance based product. These services shall result in software products, which may be used for implementing an “Artificial Intelligence enabled Video Surveillance System” according to the terms and conditions herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises made by the parties hereto, the Consultant and the Client (individually, each a “Party” and collectively, the “Parties”) covenant and agree as follows.

2. Agreement Date

This Agreement is effective from 15th May 2021 and shall expire in one year from the Agreement Date. Further extension beyond one year as per the requirement and terms will be added as an addendum to this agreement.

3. Confidentiality

Both the Parties agree that either Party may be given or may receive access to Confidential Information, about a business, or business potential, or other relationship of the other Party. This Agreement shall apply to all Confidential Information, no matter how a Party may obtain it (e.g., through disclosure by a Party to the other Party, on a telephonic conversation, emails or during a site visit etc.). In exchange for access to such Confidential Information of the other Party, each Party agrees to the following terms and conditions:

a. Definition

“Confidential Information” shall mean information of either party, regardless of form (including, without limitation, oral, documentary, photographic, video-graphic and electronic), held in confidence and reasonably considered to be proprietary by a Party. Confidential Information includes, without limitation, operational, security, human resources, roadmap, technical, financial, data, practices, procedures, software, reports, strategies, plans, documents, and models.

b. Exclusion

Confidential Information shall not include information that is (i) demonstrably in the public domain at the time of the disclosure; or is (ii) demonstrably disclosed to a Party by a third party, without violation of this Agreement.

c. Duty to Protect

Each party will use the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, that such party uses concerning its similar information, to protect the Confidential Information of the other party.

d. No Warranties

Neither party makes any warranty relating to the Confidential Information. All Confidential Information is provided on an “as is” basis, and no warranty is made regarding its accuracy or completeness.

e. No Obligation

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to impose an obligation on either party to enter into a business relationship, contract or other relationship with the other party.

f. Equitable Remedies

Each Party agrees and understands that any damages resulting from improper disclosure or misuse of Confidential Information will be irreparable; therefore, each Party agrees that the other, as applicable, will be entitled to seek equitable relief, in addition to all other remedies, to prevent any improper disclosure or misuse of Confidential Information of the aggrieved party.

4. Termination

This Agreement may be terminated by either Party by giving 60 days of prior written notice to the other Party. Information Disclosed before the issue of Termination Notice or during the notice period shall be covered by this Agreement.

5. Intellectual Property in Work

Parties agree and acknowledge that all the intellectual property rights in any work resulting from the consulting services including but not limited to copyrights and trademarks will be discussed mutually before claiming or filing. INDIA NON JUDICIAL GOVERNMENT OF KARNATAKA

WHEREAS, the Consultant offers consulting services in the field of Software Product Development related consulting services,

WHEREAS, the Client desires to retain the services of the Consultant to render consulting services with regard to the scope described below.

1. Scope of Work

The consultant shall provide and deliver to the company custom software and consulting services in developing a video surveillance based product. These services shall result in software products, which may be used for implementing an “Artificial Intelligence enabled Video Surveillance System” according to the terms and conditions herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and promises made by the parties hereto, the Consultant and the Client (individually, each a “Party” and collectively, the “Parties”) covenant and agree as follows.

2. Agreement Date

This Agreement is effective from 15th May 2021 and shall expire in one year from the Agreement Date. Further extension beyond one year as per the requirement and terms will be added as an addendum to this agreement.

3. Confidentiality

Both the Parties agree that either Party may be given or may receive access to Confidential Information, about a business, or business potential, or other relationship of the other Party. This Agreement shall apply to all Confidential Information, no matter how a Party may obtain it (e.g., through disclosure by a Party to the other Party, on a telephonic conversation, emails or during a site visit etc.). In exchange for access to such Confidential Information of the other Party, each Party agrees to the following terms and conditions:

a. Definition

“Confidential Information” shall mean information of either party, regardless of form (including, without limitation, oral, documentary, photographic, video-graphic and electronic), held in confidence and reasonably considered to be proprietary by a Party. Confidential Information includes, without limitation, operational, security, human resources, roadmap, technical, financial, data, practices, procedures, software, reports, strategies, plans, documents, and models.

b. Exclusion

Confidential Information shall not include information that is (i) demonstrably in the public domain at the time of the disclosure; or is (ii) demonstrably disclosed to a Party by a third party, without violation of this Agreement.

c. Duty to Protect

Each party will use the same degree of care, but no less than a reasonable degree of care, that such party uses concerning its similar information, to protect the Confidential Information of the other party.

d. No Warranties

Neither party makes any warranty relating to the Confidential Information. All Confidential Information is provided on an “as is” basis, and no warranty is made regarding its accuracy or completeness.

e. No Obligation

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to impose an obligation on either party to enter into a business relationship, contract or other relationship with the other party.

f. Equitable Remedies

Each Party agrees and understands that any damages resulting from improper disclosure or misuse of Confidential Information will be irreparable; therefore, each Party agrees that the other, as applicable, will be entitled to seek equitable relief, in addition to all other remedies, to prevent any improper disclosure or misuse of Confidential Information of the aggrieved party.

4. Termination

This Agreement may be terminated by either Party by giving 60 days of prior written notice to the other Party. Information Disclosed before the issue of Termination Notice or during the notice period shall be covered by this Agreement.

5. Intellectual Property in Work

Parties agree and acknowledge that all the intellectual property rights in any work resulting from the consulting services including but not limited to copyrights and trademarks will be discussed mutually before claiming or filing. In all the copyrights/IP registrations University to be added as an equal owner.

The right to exploit the commercial value of the intellectual property will belong to the client and academic ownership of the intellectual property will belong to the University. The academic IP rights, at the discretion of the client, may be bought over by the client at mutually agreeable terms later which can be transferred as a research grant to the University.

6. Indemnification

The client agrees to protect, defend and indemnify the consultants from all lawsuits and costs of every kind about the client's business including reasonable legal fees due to any act or failure to act by the client based upon the consultancy services.

7. Compensation

In consideration for the Consulting Services, the Client shall pay the Consultant fee as below:

REVA University, Bangalore -64.

To,

Director
LRDE, DRDO
Bangalore

Respected Sir,

Subject: Proposal for conduction of hands on training program on AI & ML using Python.

With reference to the above cited subject, I am sending the detailed proposal for conduction of training program on AI & ML using Python for the scientist of LRDE, DRDO.

Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning using Python is an intensive program designed to upskill professionals to develop AI based solutions for needs of individuals, society, industries and other sectors. It offers practical training program on AI and ML using python for building business models for analytics. It is designed to give the participant enough exposure to the variety of applications that can be built using techniques covered under this program. The course is designed for Scientists/Project Managers/Team Leads/Software Engineers and other professionals working in Industry and government organizations.

The flyer of the program is attached for your kind reference.

Looking forward for your association with REVA University to provide training to your esteemed organization.
