STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURE DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE

REVA University has a systemic process in place to ensure student discipline is monitored and preventive and parental advice is given to students. Student conflicts/fights, violation of rules with reference to smoking, ragging, drinking, substance abuse, misappropriation, teasing, misrepresentation of any kind are treated on a case to case basis by the Discipline committee.

The Discipline committee is responsible for:

- Hostel discipline & disputes
- Day scholars' discipline & disputes
- Disputes between departments

And the same is monitored with support from school Discipline SPOCs.

Disciplinary action based on a case to case basis ranges from:

- A warning
- Mentor referral
- Probation
- Restitution when it comes to damage of property
- Suspension to dismissal based on the serenity of the act.

The process:

- A mail sent to the discipline in charge of the respective school.
- Escalation to warden/caretaker in case of hostel.
- Further escalation to the director if need be.
- Discipline committee meeting and investigation.
- Penalty and decision
- Record of minutes
